Purpose of the policy

As a Trust, we aim to create an open and transparent culture where all concerns about all adults involved with our Trust are dealt with promptly and appropriately. We aim to identify any concerning, problematic or inappropriate behaviour early; minimise the risk of abuse; and ensure that adults working in or on behalf of our Trust / Schools are clear about professional boundaries and act within these boundaries, and in accordance with our Trust ethos. This policy also aims to protect staff working in our Trust / Schools from potential false allegations or misunderstandings. This policy should be read alongside our Safeguarding and Child Protection and Staff Code of Conduct Policies.

This policy follows guidance contained in the Keeping Children Safe in Education document and associated advice.

This policy sets out how to identify and record a low-level concern and thus, is not in itself a formal process or investigation.

Who does it apply to?

This policy applies to all staff, meaning anyone working in or on behalf of the Trust / School, such as a paid employee, including supply teachers, worker or contractor, or unpaid member of staff or volunteer, and trustees, governors and members.

What is a low-level concern?

A low-level concern is any concern that an adult has acted in a way that:

- is inconsistent with the staff code of conduct, including inappropriate conduct outside of work
- doesn't meet the threshold of harm or is not considered serious enough for the Trust / School to refer to the local authority.

Low-level concerns are part of a spectrum of behaviour. This includes:

- inadvertent or thoughtless behaviour
- behaviour that might be considered inappropriate depending on the circumstances
- behaviour which is intended to enable abuse.

Examples of such behaviour could include:

- being over friendly with children
- having favourites
- adults taking photographs of children on their mobile phone

Allegation vs low-level concern vs appropriate conduct – traffic light system

Allegation:

Any adult linked to our Trust / School who has:

- behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child and/or:
- possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child and/or:
- behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates he or she may pose a risk of harm to children; and/or
- behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children

Low-level Concern:

Any adult linked to our Trust / School who has behaved in a way that:

- is inconsistent with the staff code of conduct, including inappropriate conduct outside of work; and
- does not meet the allegations threshold or is otherwise not considered serious enough to consider a referral to the LADO

Appropriate:

- Behaviour which is entirely consistent with our Trust Code of Conduct, and the Law.

How to share a low-level concern

A member of staff who has a concern about a colleague, volunteer, contractor or who, on reflection, recognises that their actions could have been viewed as a risk, should inform the CEO / Headteacher / Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) as soon as possible ideally within 24 hours of becoming aware of it. The concern can be shared verbally with the CEO / Headteacher / DSL or by completing the form at Appendix B. If reported verbally, the CEO / Headteacher / DSL should record the information using the Low-Level Record of Concern Form- Appendix B.

Should a member of staff wish to report a concern, and not be named, this request should be respected as far as possible.

How to handle a low-level concern

Upon receipt of a concern, the CEO / Headteacher / DSL must as soon as is reasonably practicable:

1. Review the concern/s. This may include asking the reporter of the concern to provide any further information/ clarification.
2. Discuss the concern with the person against whom the concern is raised. Providing them the right to reply to the concern and informing them of any action that may subsequently be taken.
3. Follow the relevant procedure which may include a referral to the LADO or steps taken to address unprofessional behaviour.

How to record and store a low-level concern (LLC)

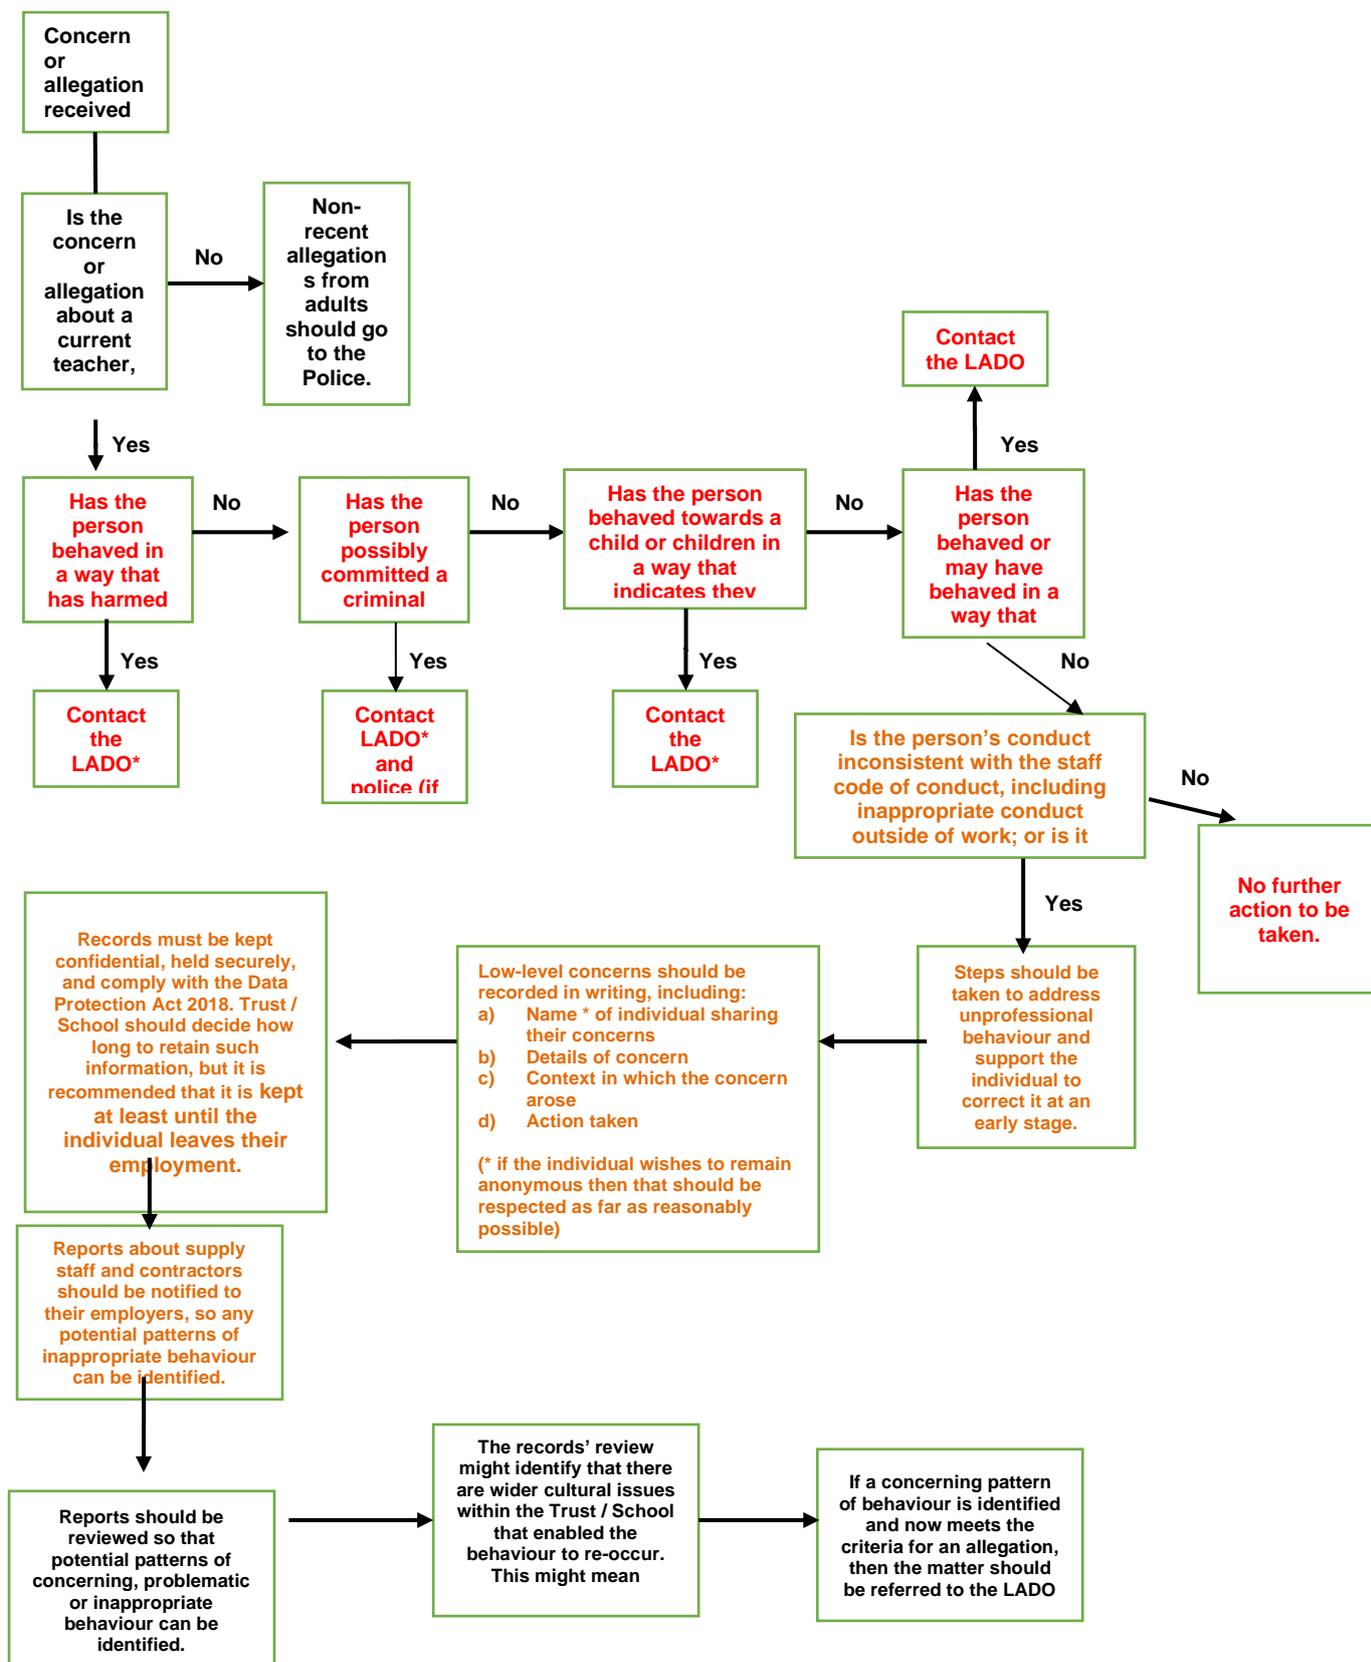

LLC forms and follow up information will be stored securely with access only CEO / Headteacher. The DSL may access low-level concerns records where instructed by the CEO / Headteacher / DSL. Low-level concern records must be kept centrally along with other safeguarding and child protection records, and within the staff personnel file. This will be stored in accordance with the Trust / School's GDPR and data protection policies.

The staff member(s) who reported the concern must keep the information confidential and not share the concern with any other person apart from the CEO / Headteacher / DSL.

When a member of staff leaves employment, any low-level concerns record will be reviewed as to whether that information needs to be kept. Consideration will be given to whether the content has still got any value, either as a safeguarding measure or because of possible relevance to future claims.

Low-level concerns will not be referred to in a reference unless they have been formalised into more significant concerns resulting in disciplinary or misconduct procedures.

NB – if the concern is about the Headteacher, then the Chair of Governors should be informed. If the concern is about the CEO, the Chair of Trustees should be informed.
