KS2 Author Visit

18th March 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to inform you that we have been able to secure a visit from the author Webilor Ediale, a multi-award-winning children's book author and champion of all things neurodiverse.

Webilor will visit our children in Years 3-6 on 2nd April 2025 and host an interactive presentation and read some of her works with the children in an assembly to explore the diverse world of communication. This experience offers a fabulous opportunity for the children to ask questions about her work and discover how authors put their characters and plot ideas together.

In order for this opportunity to go ahead we would like to request a voluntary contribution of £2.35 for this activity. This has been set up for you to pay through ParentPay and the payment be made as soon as you are able. Unfortunately, if we do not receive sufficient voluntary donations, we will have to cancel this experience

There will also be an opportunity to purchase one of Webilor's published work 'Sele Speaks Without Words', please see attached below order forms (printed copies are available from school office).

Many thanks for your support.

Mr Luxon
Literacy Lead

MEET THE AUTHOR

Webilor Ediale

AUTHOR

Webilor Ediale is a multi-award-winning children's book author, fierce advocate for neurodiversity, and passionate supporter of inclusive education. She published her debut book, Tiney Tiny Turner: I Feel Different, in 2023, and it has since expanded into a series, earning prestigious awards and culminating in a collaboration with The Hygiene Bank.

MOTHER

As a mother of two; Sele and Nome, and wife to Stephen, Webilor's journey as an author is deeply personal. Her son, Sele, has nonverbal autism, and faces additional challenges. Inspired by his unique journey, Webilor is devoted to creating engaging and inclusive stories that celebrate neurodiversity and promote understanding.

Sele Speaks Without Words: An Award-Winning Book for All Children

Webilor's award-winning book, Sele Speaks Without Words, was inspired by her son's journey and her desire to highlight the beauty of diverse communication. This book, designed for children in mainstream and special schools alike, carries a special message for all children, inclusive of kids with additional needs such as dyslexia, autism, ADHD, and more. The book is accompanied by an SSWW Educational Set, which includes: hardcover book, activity workbook, sticker sheet, bookmark, lesson plans and an interactive game. Additionally, children can now build memories with their very own Sele cuddly toy, designed to provide comfort and sensory input for children who need it most.

SCHOOL VISITS

Webilor has made it her mission to share her stories with children in schools across the UK to inspire hope and spread love. "Love never gives up, never loses faith, it's always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance" (1 Corinthians 13:7) Her author visits are tailored to KS1, KS2, and KS3 for only £500.
